

Save The Date

ASMAC 2027 Fall Conference

October 24-27, 2027
Hotel Champlain | Burlington, VT

ASMAC is excited to announce that our 2027 Fall Conference will be held at the beautiful Hotel Champlain in Burlington, VT. Join us for four days of engaging educational content in the heart of Vermont's Lake Champlain region from October 24th through 27th.

About the Meeting

The ASMAC Annual Fall Conference provides the perfect platform to interact with other attorneys and physician advocates to learn how about legal, legislative, litigation and policy developments that are impacting physicians and physician practices. The CLE sessions and networking opportunities provide attendees with thoughtful, engaging and insightful professional and personal development opportunities.

The medical environment is changing, and we understand the need for programs that prepare you to address the demands of medical association and client needs.

CLE Credit

The conference program is generally eligible for 8-10 Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credits. ASMAC Applies for credit from the MCLE Board in Illinois. Attendees will receive a certificate of CLE credit showing that credit for the course has been approved in Illinois. Attendees will be responsible for applying for credit in their own state.

Pricing

$775 — In-Person Registration until August 30, 2025 ($825 late registration after August 30th. Guest meal & social event registration also available)

About the Hotel

Set directly on the shores of Lake Champlain in the heart of downtown Burlington, Hotel Champlain, Curio Collection by Hilton, offers a boutique waterfront setting for an unforgettable ASMAC conference experience. As part of Hilton's Curio

Collection of distinctive, locally inspired properties, it pairs modern comfort with the character of Vermont's lakefront.

Highlights of Hotel Champlain:

Accommodations: 258 well-appointed rooms and suites, including lake-view and city-view options with queen, king, and suite configurations.

Dining: Home to two on-site restaurants — Lily May's Café, an all-day, regionally inspired café with lake views, and Original Skiff Fish & Oysters, a seafood-focused restaurant led by James Beard Award-nominated Chef Eric Warnstedt.

Amenities: A renovated fitness center, EV charging stations, pet-friendly rooms, on-site games and recreation, daily food & beverage credit, and yoga & fitness classes, plus 13 meeting rooms and a 5,400-square-foot ballroom that can accommodate up to 600 guests.

Location: Steps from the Lake Champlain waterfront and roughly a half-mile from Church Street Marketplace and the Flynn Theatre, with Burlington International Airport just 4 miles (about a 15-minute drive) away.